REPORT TASK

- Write a 1,500 word report on a recent kind of technology, how it works, its features, potential problems diagrams and applications.

- Due Date: Friday, September 13th, 2019

- It will have a title page and list of contents

- Students must use at least 5 references

- The report will be referenced according to the APA style

- The report is comprised of eight main sections:

- The introduction

- technical problem

- A drawback in terms of environmental, social or economic consequences e.g. Data Protection and Privacy

- Areas of application

- Conclusion

- List of Figures

- References